Linking Schools and Communities is a comprehensive induction for council or board Chairs and Principals to attend together. It provides time for joint planning and partnership building, so they may work together to establish an effective school council or board, as per the principal's legislative responsibility.

The workshop will help both the principal and chair to understand:

- the roles, responsibilities and decision-making capacity of the council/board
- The foundations of an effective council/board
- How the council/board contributes to the school's business planning
- How the council/board manages risk
- How the council/board contributes to monitoring and reporting on school performance
- How to arrange training and development for all of their council or board members that best suits their specific needs.
